VOL. IV. NO. 208.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

FLORA LOUISE BEATEN.

"Still a heating," is what the race boys said of the weather yesterday. There were some floating clouds, "markers" it was presumed for the feeble breezes that would have served well enough for cooling purposes were one ensconced beneath a tree, but hardly up to the requirements of a bald grand stand. The aggregate amount of wool in the wearing apparel of the Harlem crowd could easily have been furnished by the pelt of a single sheep, and a black derby hat was as scarce an article as a bright bay mule, while the amount of "crash" in women's dress skirts and men's outing suits would indicate that bar an "extra turn" at the mills towelng would soon take a jump in price. Everybody had on as little clothing as meets the requirements of civilization, but no one could say, "I am comfortable." Yet the game went merrily on, for racing of all sports keeps its votary "in the air" to the exclusion of all personal considerations. Liquor has no bad effect on racegoers; then what chance has heat? The card promised little, but the attendance held up to the average.

Judge Tarvin was made an "odds on" favorite for the first race, on the strength of his form of the early spring, although his Chicago record only showed one start at Washington Park, where Respass' colt ran fourth in a race won by Ailyar. The start was made at 2:30 p. m. Mazie V showed in front but Judge Tarvin at once headed her, only to be outrun into the home stretch by Speedy Cass, upon which "there was doings," he being backed from 8 down to 4 to 1 to show. The favorite assumed command when Speedy Cass quit and fell away to nothing, and going on untouched won as he pleased. Iris was an easy second from Pat Cleburne, who got up in time to beat Native Son. Willie Howard was close up.

"Virginia" Bradley helped out the bookmakers by the win of Plantain. The quaint horse owner bet a few dollars "straight" and "show" on his horse and remarked; "I think if I had done enough with him, he would win." Plantain led all the way, although through the last eighth it was ding-dong between him and George Krats who was just beaten. The favorite had always been close up in a good position, and if Knight had started sooner he might possibly have won. As it was he did not hurry his horse until well into the home stretch. Branch was second at the half mile ground. Deyo was third until the last fifty yards where Wilson, passing her, got the third money. The last named horse was strongly backed, it being said that the St. Louis trip had proved him. J. McDonald, on Wilson, rode a waiting race, saved all the ground he could but didn't have the goods. Globe II was close up until the middle of the upper turn, but finally was beaten off as were Oelien and Branch.

Imp, reported to have worked three-quarters in 1:14, was bet on at 4 to 1 at the opening, and receded to 3 to 1, but George Rose soon went after Imp money and hoisted 4 to 1 against Brossman's mare. Flora Louise opened at 6 to 5, advanced to 13 to 10 and then landed at even money. Eugenia Wickes, considered by many to have an equal chance with the favorite, was anywhere from 2 1/2 to 3 to 1 at all stages. The outsiders "ran for the end book." The first break was spoiled by Lady Callahan. The next virtually left the bad actor and gave the others an equal show, bar Elsie Bramble. Even Dusterswivel stayed in company for a quarter. The lead was at once assumed by Eugenia Wickes and she was not headed, winning by three open lengths from Flora Louise, second all the way. Imp, third, was three lengths behind Flora Louise, and at no part of the journey was much closer. Into the straight Tenole gave Imp an argument, but at the finish he was beaten by Lady Callahan, who probably ran as good a race as Flora Louise.

Now came an event of the kind, which, having the elements of real racing, everyone likes to bet on and witness. Here were four horses, ridden by competent jockeys, although it might be objected that such definition would not apply to Holden, who rode Fervor. People could breathe easy as to the fear of danger to the midget Reiff, who handled the favorite Hugh Penny, and indeed with such a small field it is always safe to wager that no accident will occur and the best horse be returned the winner. Hugh Penny, opening at "evens," went to 7 to 10 and then advanced to his original price, and there was a strong steady play on every horse in the race. That the race should have been spoiled by an unforeseen occurrence is lamentable. Starter Dwyer had a hard time in catching the horses in a line, Satsuma breaking away and the others being none too tractable at the post. Finally as Assistant Starter McKnight led and pulled Satsuma back of the barrier the other boys started to break, but noting that J. McDonald on Satsuma could not get off with the others Reiff, Holden and H. Martin pulled their horses nearly to a standstill, when "go on" shouted Dwyer and dropped his flag. Hugh Penny was the more nearly on his stride and he led off with three open lengths of a start in the first sixteenth. This he held over Fervor all the way and won without urging. Dunois got to Fervor on the upper turn but was easily beaten by Arthur's horse for the place. Satsuma was always hopelessly out of it. As Dwyer walked across the track he was roundly hissed but his host of friends "stood off" the disapproval by hand clapping and cheers. A sun shower burst forth as Dwyer made his bobble and the shout went up: "He has brought on the rain." As a matter of course, there was much ill feeling caused by the accidental start, and reckless accusations were floated, but an old horseman said: "The jockeys should be fined heavily for pulling up. There is no excuse for their so doing when a recall flag is used."

Jolly Roger had been touted into such favoritism that the 4 to 5 first offered was eagerly snapped at, but the parties first to get on had the worst of it, as the bookmakers had the tip that Rush had an excellent chance and the money of her owners' friends coming in. Jolly Roger's price was raised to 6 to 5 and he landed at 11 to 10. McDowell's filly being backed from 2 1/2 to 1 down to 2 to 1. The horses were off well together but Jolly Roger, a slow breaker, was so outrun that in the first three-sixteenths he was four lengths behind Canace; she lapped on Boney Boy who was an open length away from Rush. The latter, quick on her feet, had taken command and this she never relinquished, winning pulled up by several lengths. It was a great finish for the place. Canace and Boney Boy had had it hot and heavy from the head of the straight, and at the final sixteenth they were collared by J. J. Roger, the three running locked to the wire. Jolly Roger was second, Canace third.

There was a long wait between the fifth and sixth races, the latter being run at 6 o'clock. As the horses were due at the post the owner of Idle Hour complained to Judge Clark of Brown on his horse and asked for a change, saying that something was wrong with the betting, he having put on money only to see the price go up. Sheppard was substituted for Brown and still the price went up, one penciler saying 8 to 1 Idle Hour to show. When at the post the four-

Winner—B. c. by Lord Hartington—Eurie.
Off at first break. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Judge Tarvin was the best and heavily played. Everett got him off in the front division and took no chances. Iris was lucky to get the place. She had clear sailing but from the sixteenth pole home was tiring. Pat Cleburne had all the bad luck of the race. He stumbled and almost fell at the start and after that was sharply cut off twice. He was a good colt and would have given Judge Tarvin a stout argument, barring interference, and surely would have beaten Iris for the place. Willie Howard took the short route and ran a good race. Mazie V has had too much of it and seems to have lost her speed. Speedy Cass is well named. Barabbas won't do at all. Native Son ran as though he might like a route. He made up ground throughout.

Scratched—Air Blast, 110.

Iris, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Pat Cleburne, show, 7 to 5.

8223 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 20 Yards. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 25.50 1/2, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42 1/2, 1:43 1/2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Knight of Ellerslie—Banana.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth driving also. Plantain was best ridden. That explains his win. Bloss hugged the rails all the way and when it came to a drive clearly outfinished Knight on George Krats. The latter was the best and with a more vigorous ride would have won. He is simply a hard-luck horse. Wilson seemed to prop all the way. He does not like a hard track and the going today was like a hard pavement. Deyo seemed to be galloping on the far turn but when the pinch came went all to pieces. It looked as though the filly was cut off in the stretch but her rider said not. Oelian was unable to raise a gallop the first part of it, but finished strong. His race was a bad one, but like the two behind him, he was outclassed.

Scratched—Official, 104; King Bermuda, 101.

Plantain, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. George Krats, place, 1 to 3; Wilson, show, 2 to 5.

8224 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—B. f. 4. by Kantaka—Genevieve.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out; third and fourth driving. Eugenia Wickes got a flying start and had speed to loan. She is very good now and if pushed out could easily have run a half second faster. Flora Louise hardly ran her race. McDonald, on Eugenia Wickes, was looking back and laughing at Everett all through the stretch. Imp, hardly ready, ran a good race. Sheppard lost his whip at the head of the stretch and could not drive the filly to the limit at the end. Lady Callahan, off in the rear division, raced from behind nicely. She hardly clashes with those in front of her, but is fit and ready and can win when rightly placed. Tenole was right there the first part of it. Elsie Bramble looks good and ran better than the figures show.

Scratched—Summer Sea, 104; Buck Moran, 104; Little Alarm, 98.

Eugenia Wickes, place, 3 to 5. Flora Louise, place, 1 to 3. Imp, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. 8, by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward.
Post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third were driving. Hugh Penny was the best. He was practically given the race at the start. All the other boys, with the exception of little Reiff, were pulling up when the flag fell. Penny, under the light weight, led all the way without being extended. He wanted to loaf at the head of the stretch but the boy there went to the whip. At the weights the old horse was a cinch and did not have to get away so well to win. Fervor ran a good game race. He was under a drive all though the stretch. Dunois made a strong bid on the turn but died away at the end. Satsuma was worsted a lot at the start. It is doubtful, though, if he could have won with same send-off that Penny got.

Hugh Penny, place, 2 to 5. Fervor, place, 3 to 2; show, 3 to 10.

FLORA LOUISE BEATEN.

teen horses did everything mean they could. Sheppard was off Idle Hour and Rose down on the ground soon after, having the saddle of Second Chance fixed. Sooner or later it looked as if the race would be run by the light of the moon, but just before the sun sunk to rest in the cemetery, Dwyer effected a fair start. Osmon led to the home stretch, where he was passed by Inspector Hunt. Idle Hour and Second Chance were next. The favorite ran fifteen lengths behind the leader up the back stretch. Inspector Hunt had Osmon beaten at the betting ring, but began to tire and Osmon passed him at the last sixteenth. Here the leaders were closely together next the fence, when up came Ellis, on Martin K. and, shooting through between them, went on and was easily first past the post. Osmon was second, while Inspector Hunt lasted long enough to beat Queen Safie and the favorite for third money. Idle Hour was fifth.

Mrs. F. C. Bauman's horses, Yours Truly and Papa Harry, advertised to be sold at Harlem yesterday, were disposed of in an informal sort of way (W. O. Scully said he didn't know anything about the sale) the former bringing $75 the other $185. Rumor had it that Patron got tangled up with the sheriff.

W. H. Laudeman is to send east six head of horses, including the stake colt Onomastus and Goodrich, the winner of the Great Western Handicap at Washington Park. The latter will be treated by Dr. Sheppard. Laudeman's horses remaining here are Melter, Primate and Ramiro II.

George Arnold, ex-President of the Memphis Jockey Club, one of the most popular officials known to turf history, is in town. He has been spending some weeks at Battle Creek, Mich.

Ed McColvin, formerly cashier for Bride & Armstrong, but for some years the treasurer for Bush & Johnson, is engaged in the Harlem betting ring.

J. R. Hand shipped his fifteen head of horses from Harlem to Council Bluffs, Wednesday night.

There were eighteen regular and two field bookmakers.

Winner—B. f. by Wadsworth—Reine d'Or.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; the others were driving to the limit. Rush broke running and made every post a winning one. She had a world of speed, and after going the first half had the others leg weary. She is certainly a filly of phenomenal speed. Jolly Roger, as usual, was outrun the first part of it. He came, though, like a whirlwind at the end. It was a tight fit for second place, Roger getting it in the last stride. Canace hung on gamely when the pinch came. So did Boney Boy, who fought hard every inch of the last eighth.

Scratched—Onomastus, 109.

Rush, place, 1 to 2. Jolly Roger, place, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Free Knight—Petticoat.

Post 18 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were hard at it. It was a poor lot, and after the delay any horse had a chance to win. Martin K. ran a clever race and was nicely handled. Ellis let him loaf along down the back stretch and made his move at the right time. Osmon was off well and ran his race. So did Inspector Hunt. The latter though made his run too soon. Queen Safie came fast at the end. So did Harry Gaines who had bad luck. After the judges shifted jockeys on Idle Hour he ran a creditable race. Croesus came from far back the last three furlongs.

Scratched—Majesta, 104; Whitcomb, 104; Goose Liver, 107; The Tory, 107; Governor Sheehan, 107.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ben Strome—Favor Ban.
Start fair. Won easily. Anagram was probably the best and looks it. She was perfectly ridden. Helen Thomas got off poorly, closed a big gap and was a good horse. She is game and likes a route. Gaze ran well but the hard track stopped her the last quarter. She is best in mud. Chemisette ran finely and had a lot of speed, but her jockey could not help her any. Country Dance ran well and got a strong ride. Sister Fox is improving. Florence Clark showed a lot of speed. Tut Tut has lost form or dislikes this course.

Scratched—Black Venus, 104; Tender, 98; Frances Booker, 94; Water Girl, 104.

Overweights—Gaze, 1 pound; Lepida, 1; Florence Clark, 1; Lyric, 2.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Cavalier—Pee Wee.
Start fair. Won easily. Laverock was lightly weighted and saved at the post. She is a stayer and was favored through the leaders exhausting themselves in pacemaking. Is in very good form. Hanwell beat the gate and ran an exceptionally good race for him. George Keene looked soft at the post and was unlucky. He can do better. Lady Marian ran well for her. Royal Stag is not good or is short. He had plenty of speed and was eased up in the stretch.

Scratched—Rappahannock, 113.

Laverock, place, even. Hanwell, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Candlemas—Nellie Swift.
Start fair. Won handily. Swiftmas was lucky and perfectly handled. He closed like a flash at the end after being waited with. Harvey is a good horse. He closed strong at the end. He was lucky throughout and well handled. Kinikinnick is in grand form. He closed fast. He is a good weight carrier. Banastar closed a tremendous gap from a bad beginning. Lambent was killed off chasing Typhoon, who showed extreme speed but was short and eased up the last sixteen. Firearm, off badly, took the long route and finished strong. He ran impressively.

Scratched—Taboret, 118; Lillian Bell, 118; Right of Way, 115; Billali, 115.

Overweights—Harvey, 2 1/2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Knight of Ellerslie—Spaldie.
Start bad. Won easily. The race was not a true one, and was a very slow one at that. Latson and Mirthful are game and stayers. Latson was lucky and perfectly ridden. He was benefited by the extremely slow pace set. Candleblack stopped badly at the end and is possibly only a sprinter, yet he got a poorly judged ride. Mirthful was loafing away out of it. He is good. Central Trust fell to his knees at the start. He was choked the first part and got a generally loose sort of ride. Throw out his race.

Scratched—Geisha, 126.

Latson, place, 3 to 1.

Winner—Br. c, 3, by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blossom.
Start good. Won driving. George B. Cox was easily best today. He outran his field from start to finish and took the long route, winning under a strong finish. Oxnard hung on gamely and is wonderfully improved. The Winner had no excuses. Merry Prince got a poor ride. He was taken back at the start, took the long route and was badly messed about. Handpress quit badly at the end. Miss Tenny had no chance with Michaels up. Ben Ronald is very good and showed great speed. Watch him with Simms up.

Scratched—Swiftmas, 112; Leedsville, 112; Rondo, 98; Charentus, 98; Endeavor, 98; Manchester, 98.

Start good. Won easily. King Barleycorn was the best. He was waited with and ran over the field in the stretch. He evidently likes the grass course. Himtine is a fine filly and is very fast. She might have won if saved the first part. Mr. Phinizy was shut off and badly interfered with on the stretch turn. He is very game and a stayer. Rhinelander ran well, but like Mr. Phinizy, probably dislikes the grass track. Hungarian showed plenty of speed and was eased up the last quarter.
